

We are kindly inviting you to the regional Conference

‘TIA - There is an alternative’

held on December 4 - 5th 2013,
Ljubljana, Slovenia

Aim of the conference is to discuss the concepts of global education, global citizenship and national identity throughout the region of South Eastern Europe. The goal is not to search for common definitions but to look for similarities and differences in its understanding and finding ways to work together for the common goal despite of (or because of) differences.

Framework of the Conference:

The time of crisis has opened a window for a serious re-thinking of the ways in which states, societies and people deal with global challenges. This tipping point represents a tipping point for global education as well. The policies and principles that were developed in the past no longer serve a truly sustainable and equitable future and the plurality of voices in GE debate grows daily. For global education to be effective it is particularly important to speak a language that is shared with its target groups in their cultural and historic background.

The participants will be invited to co-create policies and principles of GE that have a particular value for the countries from the region. Inspiring GE practices will serve as guidelines and inspiration.

Participants

Approximately 60 people are expected to attend the seminar from the following target countries:

- a) Main target EU NMS countries: Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Malta, Romania, Slovenia
- b) WB Countries members to NSC - CoE: Serbia, Montenegro
- c) other NGO representatives from other NMS

Conference Language will be in English and there will be no translation provided.

Travel and Accommodation costs for limited number of participants will be covered – NGO participants from group a) and b) could apply for travel and accommodation costs reimbursement, while the participants from group c) for accommodation only. For the coverage of those costs as well for any other information, please contact Sloga (conference@sloga-platform.org) at the earliest convenience. A confirmation on reimbursement will be sent prior to the conference.

We are looking forward meeting you at the Regional conference.
